Thursday 16th of July 2026

Hi Everyone,

This will be my last blog for this academic year with just a week remaining until our school closes for the summer holidays next Thursday.

Last week saw our annual Rose day and what a super day it was! It was as always emotional seeing everyone on the playground cheering their children on and enjoying the wonderful performances! The evening was fab with so many people popping in despite the weather being hotter than hot. Amazing job, well done by our superb Friends of Crossflatts for all of their hard work to make the evening so enjoyable, school was buzzing!

Next Thursday, we say a fond farewell to our Year 6. These children have travelled a phenomenal distance over their time with us here, achieving greatly both academically and personally. They leave us as kind, polite and confident young people ready for the next chapter in their lives. I would like on behalf of all the staff, to wish them the very best of luck with their next steps and they know they are always very welcome at Crossflatts Primary School. Look back with happiness and then forwards with excitement for the future.

Thank you for sending all of the annual report slips back this week with so many lovely comments about how much your children love coming to school and for how much they have progressed over the past year, they really do mean a lot to all of the staff here at school.

Friends of Crossflatts

Thank you to everyone who supported this years Rose Day event. I know that everyone is always eager to know what we raised. We are very excited to share it with you all. We have lots of learnings from the event, especially running it in such extreme heat but we are thrilled with the amount we raised. We will discuss the event in more detail at our first meeting back in September. If anyone has any suggestions or feedback please email roseday@crossflatts.bradford.sch.uk or come along in September. The date will be announced in the blog in the new academic year.

And finally... As I reflect on this year, I am so proud of all we have accomplished this year. The children have all made excellent progress over the course of the year, although the individual personal journey each child has made is perhaps even more profound. Over the past 190 days, I have observed each child, be they a little Owl in our Nursery or one walking around in a light blue Leaver's Hoodie, at some point dig deep inside themselves to overcome a challenge in their path. Watching them develop their sense of determination, resilience and sheer grit has been a privilege. I couldn't be prouder of the well-rounded children who begin their summer holidays next Thursday ready for a much deserved rest.

I would like to say a huge heartfelt thank you to all the children, staff and parents for their endless positive support, belief and kindness throughout the year. Crossflatts Primary School is a family and without each and every one of you, it wouldn't be the magical place it is.

I hope everyone has a fabulous summer whether that is here in the garden or further afield with lots of relaxation, fun, some much needed time to restore, switch off devices, turn the noise off and just slow right down with the people you treasure the most.

I will see you all on Tuesday 1st of September! Happy Holidays!
